

Home Learning Project - Week 2 - Art Week

Years 3 and 4

Monday 8th June (Vincent Van Gogh) Click on any underlined words to follow the link to the website.	Reading: Who was Vincent Van Gogh? Vincent Van Gogh. Read the text and create a fact file about Vincent Van Gogh. Fact file template Writing: Read Camille and the sunflowers. Camille and the Sunflowers. How do you think Camille felt when Vincent was badly treated by the villagers and they wanted him gone? Write a diary as Camille, explaining how you felt throughout the story- from the day Vincent came to live with your family till the day he was forced to leave. Remember to include: emotive language (how you felt and why), adjectives, conjunctions, simile, first person. Maths: Spend some time on Times Table Rockstars - how many coins can you win today? Can you beat your records? Visit WHITE ROSE MATHS and complete the learning video for today. Get some extra practice on BBC bitesize to become an expert! In addition to the above this week, you can have a go at: Year 3: Converting into equivalent fractions, comparing and ordering fractions. Watch the video first (Lesson 1) Video then have a go at completing the Activity Year 4: Making a whole, writing, comparing and ordering decimals. Watch the Video (Lesson 1) the have a go at the Activity Topic: Can you recreate the famous 'sunflower' painting by Vincent Van Gogh? Sunflower painting
Tuesday 9th June (Salvador Dali)	Reading: Who was Salvador Dali? Why was he famous? Salvador Dali Biography Read the information about Salvador Dali and complete the 'Artist Study Fact Sheet'. Artist Study Fact Sheet Writing: Use the links to find out as much as you can about each painting created by Dali and use the information to answer the questions. The persistence of Memory - What makes it an example of Surrealism? What theme do you think Dali is expressing?

Click on any underlined words to follow the link to the website.	Metamorphosis of Narcissus- What examples of Surrealism can you see in this painting? Sleep- What message is Dali expressing about sleep in this painting? Maths:Spend some time on Times Table Rockstars - how many coins can you win today? Can you beat your records? Visit WHITE ROSE MATHS and complete the learning video for today. Get some extra practice on BBC bitesize to become an expert! Year 3: Converting into equivalent fractions, comparing and ordering fractions.Watch the video first (Lesson 2) Video then have a go at completing the Activity Year 4: Making a whole, writing, comparing and ordering decimals. Watch the Video (Lesson 2) the have a go at the Activity Topic: Salvador Dalí was a Surrealist artist who used dreams as a basis for many of his paintings. Surrealist means 'beyond reality' meaning it is art which is unreal often showing dreams. Draw part of a scene from a dream you might have had or a scene of something completely unreal. Then use the scene to create a painting in the style of Salvador Dalí. Template
Wednesday 10th June (Pablo Picasso) Click on any underlined words to follow the link to the website.	Reading: Read the text about Pablo Picasso, Pablo Picasso. What fact intrigued you most about Picasso? Why? Writing: Using information from your reading, write a biography of Pablo Picasso. You can use the Biography template or you can create your own template. You can find additional information about biographies here. Maths:Spend some time on Times Table Rockstars - how many coins can you win today? Can you beat your records? Visit WHITE ROSE MATHS and complete the learning video for today. Get some extra practice on BBC bitesize to become an expert! Year 3: Converting into equivalent fractions, comparing and ordering fractions.Watch the video first (Lesson 3) Video then have a go at completing the Activity Year 4: Making a whole, writing, comparing and ordering decimals. Watch the Video (Lesson 3) the have a go at the Activity Topic: Can you recreate one of your chosen Picasso's famous paintings? Famous Paintings
Thursday 11th June (Piet Mondrian)	Reading: Who was Piet Mondrian? How did his style change overtime? Read to find out: Piet Mondrian Video Writing: How did Piet Mondrian's style change overtime? What influenced it? Maths: Spend some time on Times Table Rockstars - how many coins can you win today? Can you beat your records?

Click on any underlined words to follow the link to the website.	Visit WHITE ROSE MATHS and complete the learning video for today. Get some extra practice on BBC bitesize to become an expert! Year 3: Converting into equivalent fractions, comparing and ordering fractions. Watch the video first (Lesson 4) Video then have a go at completing the Activity Year 4: Making a whole, writing, comparing and ordering decimals. Watch the Video (Lesson 4) then have a go at the Activity Topic: Use Piet Mondrian's examples as inspiration to create your own version of Piet Mondrian's painting- Inspiration More Inspiration
Friday 12th June (Jackson Pollock) Click on any underlined words to follow the link to the website.	Reading: Read the following texts to find out what 'Jackson Pollock' was famous for and why he was called "Jack The Dripper". What techniques did he use? Jackson Pollock Jackson Pollock Writing: What are your thoughts about some of Jackson Pollock's paintings? For example, why is this painting referred to as 'Summertime'? Jackson Pollock called this painting 'Yellow islands'. Would you agree? Give your reasons? This painting has been called simply "Number 23". What would you call it and why? Maths: Spend some time on Times Table Rockstars - how many coins can you win today? Can you beat your records? Visit WHITE ROSE MATHS and complete the learning video for today. Get some extra practice on BBC bitesize to become an expert! Year 3: Have a go at the Maths Challenge: Challenge Year 4: Today you can have a go at the Maths Challenge Topic: Create your own painting to show your mood using: 'drippy, splashy and messy' techniques.
Other helpful websites:

